Name: Ashley Beauchamp
Programme: Thurrock OnTrack
Outcome: Working in retail

Department for Work &
Pensions

Ashley had taken time out of education and employment after the birth of her child. However, she had recently decided that she would like to get her career started again. Her career gap meant that she wanted to get some help to find work, as she felt that things might of changed in that time.

At an event in the Inspire Hub she was told about the support TCHC could provide and thought it would provide her with the skills and support that she needed to restart her career.

“I thought the programme was really helpful, I felt supported and motivated to find jobs.”

Ashley was helped with her job searching and applications. When she got offered an interview she was nervous and asked for some additional support. “When I had an interview Abby helped me with the prep.” TCHC helped Ashley through the interview preparation, which helped to calm her nerves.

The interview went really well and Ashley was offered a part time job as a retail assistant in a bakery. She is so happy to be working, “ I now have a job and I’m not claiming benefits.”

Ashley was very pleased with all the help our dedicated staff provided, “the staff are really nice and helpful.”

Ashley is now working part-time in Greggs and is really happy in her new job!
