

2025 YOU SAID. WE DID.

Young people aged 11 – 18 (up to 25 years Neurodiverse) who live in Thurrock.

1

You wanted construction courses that had smaller classes

Inspire commissioned STC Group to deliver a construction course three days a week

2

You wanted to have your say in Thurrock and how to make it safer

SEND youth voice now feeds into the Youth violence and safety strategy for Essex

3

You wanted to discuss your transition with professionals

Meeting held with commissioning team in October 2024

4

You wanted better transition into Post 16

Preparing for adulthood (PFA) Team offer careers Advice to all Year 9s and Year 11s

5

You wanted a short course for Green Construction Skills Certification Scheme (CSCS) Labourer Card and Health and Safety Awareness training

Inspire has delivered in partnership two CSCS training courses

6

You wanted Maths and English classes at Inspire

Inspire are delivering extra provision at Grays Hub

7

You wanted more information on the local offer

Thurrock SEND Team have been updating and attending focus groups with parents and young people

8

You wanted drop in appointments at Inspire hub Grays

From January 2025 Inspire now offer Tuesday and Wednesday drop in appointments, in addition to booked appointments

9

You wanted to have more awareness of jobs for the future

Inspire have delivered Heath and Social, Apprenticeship and Jobs fairs with quieter times for neurodiverse clients

10

You wanted to be more healthy

Treetops now have Mental Health Champions through Public Health